

CITY CLERK HAMMARLUND REJECTS THE PETITION SEEKING RECALL OF THE PRESENT CITY OFFICERS

FINDS TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY NAMES NOT ELIGIBLE AND ALSO STATES OTHER REASONS.

AFFECTS ALL THE LISTS

This May Mean That Case Will Be Taken to the Supreme Court for Settlement if New Petition is Not Filed.

City Clerk Hammarlund this afternoon filed the following statement relative to the petitions seeking the recall of the present city officials, in which he rejects the three papers filed by the recall element, giving his reasons for such that he finds two hundred and forty names are on said petitions that do not answer to the requirements of the law and also that the papers do not comply otherwise with the state law as interpreted by the city attorney and the lawyers who have been engaged to investigate the law.

This means the petitions are thrown out and that if a special election is to be held it must be brought about through a writ of mandamus in the circuit court. This would probably be argued in May and which ever way decided would doubtless go to the supreme court for final decision, which would mean it would not come up before January of 1914.

It is possible that new petitions will be filed at once, which will answer the objections raised by City Attorney Dougherty and other attorneys interested, or the case may be taken on appeal to the circuit court. The following is the text of Mr. Hammarlund's findings:

STATE OF WISCONSIN.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That pursuant to Subdivision 5 of Section 925m-307 of the Revised Statutes of Wisconsin for 1898, I have examined the petition filed with me for the recall of Councilman Roy M. Cummings, of the City of Janesville. This petition was filed with me as City Clerk of said City, on the afternoon of January 27, 1913. I have examined this petition for the purpose of determining whether or not the same is in all respects in compliance with the law and whether or not it is sufficient.

My determination of the insufficiency of this petition and my finding to that effect is largely based upon an opinion furnished me by the City Attorney of this City and other lawyers associated with him in said matter at my request, and this opinion is made a part of this certificate by reference thereto as fully as though the same were wholly incorporated herein, is attached hereto and found filed herewith.

FIRST: I find that this petition is wholly insufficient for the reason that it is not in compliance with Sub-section 3 of Section 925m-307 in this respect, viz: that it does not contain a "general statement" of the grounds upon which the removal is sought.

In this connection, I state that the heading of this petition is substantially the same as the heading of a former petition filed with me for the recall of said Councilman Cummings on December 18, 1912; that I certified said former petition as insufficient for this identical reason and that to the petition herewith certified is attached a statement of the attorneys for the recall in charge of the matter of the recall in charge of the matter of the recall, sufficient grounds are stated and that they decline to make any change or amendment in that regard.

SECOND: I find that this petition and the two petitions for the recall and election of successors of Councilman C. K. Millmore and Mayor James A. Fathers were all submitted together and as one petition to the signers thereof, were all signed by substantially the same parties, verified by the same parties and all signed about the same date, and all contain identically the same headings and assigned identically the same reasons for the recall and the election of a successor.

All three of said petitions have been filed, the one against Councilman Cummings on the 25th day of January, 1913; the one against Mayor Fathers on the 25th day of January, 1913; and the one against Councilman Millmore on the 29th day of January, 1913, and together therewith has been filed with me a request from the petitioners to hold all three recall elections on one and the same day. From all this it is plain that the three petitions are and were filed pursuant to a general scheme and plan to remove the entire City Council and present Municipal Administration of the City of Janesville simultaneously and at one election. I am advised in the annexed opinion already referred to that this cannot legally be done, refer to the same for the reasons assigned therefor, and for that reason certify that this petition is not filed in accordance with the provisions of the law hereinbefore and in said opinion referred to. Because this failure to comply with the law, this petition is illegal and not sufficient.

THIRD: I further certify that upon careful investigation as to the electoral qualifications of the signers upon this petition, I find thereon two hundred and forty (240) names of persons whose names do not appear upon any poll or registration list in said City of Janesville; that I am unable to ascertain from any information obtainable that the persons bearing those names are electors in said city, and for that reason I find that they are not electors and are not entitled to be considered in determining the sufficiency of the petitions. These two hundred and forty (240) names are on file and listed in my office and indicated by mark upon the petition herewith certified and are not here set forth at length for that reason.

For several reasons, one because of shortness of time but mostly because the facts are within the peculiar knowledge of the recall committee and those who managed the gathering of the signatures to the petitions and are not accessible to me so as to enable me to finally determine definite and specific facts, I am unable to determine the exact number of minors and non-residents whose names appear on said petitions, nor the number of those whose names appear there and who claim they never signed any such petition, nor the number who affixed their names to said petitions under fraud and misrepresentation and believing that the petitions contained no charges of any kind but was merely a call for an election. From such information as I am able to obtain I believe and am satisfied that there are a large number of such and that when those are stricken off the petition, the number left is far below the number required by law to constitute a sufficient petition.

For the foregoing reasons, I decide and certify this petition invalid and insufficient.

Dated February 4, 1913.
J. P. HAMMARLUND,
City Clerk.

WALL STREET GLOOM COSTING MILLIONS

Worth of Seats on Stock Exchange
Amounts To a Loss of $52,000,000
Due to Dwindling Business.

New York, Feb. 4.—A decline of more than fifty million dollars in the aggregate market value of the seats on the New York stock exchange is one measure of the depths of Wall street's gloom. The latest sale of a seat was made for $48,000 which is precisely one half the high record reached in 1909. On the assumption that $48,000 represents the present marketable value of a seat, the total shrinkage on paper a list of the 1100 seats in the exchange is $52,000,000.

Last November a seat was sold for $69,000. On the same basis the decline in about three months is $23,100,000. Neither during the panic of 1907 nor during the "rich man's panic" of 1903 did the price fall as low, $51,000 having been the low level at both these periods.

Dwindling business is the explanation of the decline in seat prices.

SUFFRAGE LEAGUES JOIN THEIR FORCES

Two Wisconsin Organizations in Meeting Today Effect a Permanent Union Without Opposition.

Madison, Feb. 4.—The two years' warfare between the Wisconsin Woman's Suffrage Association and the Political Equality League was ended today when representatives of both met here and by unanimous vote decided to unite their forces. The resolution for the union was presented by Miss Zona Gale. At a banquet at noon the speakers were: Mrs. B. C. Giddon and Miss Lottie Stearns. Miss Virginia Brooks will address an open meeting in the assembly hall tonight.

FEAR CULT LEADER PLANNED A FLIGHT

Federal Authorities Take Ottoman
Hanish Thinking He Intended to Violate $10,000 Bond.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Ottoman Zar Adusht Hanish, was today ordered taken into custody by federal authorities to be interrogated concerning reports that he was preparing to flee to New Orleans, in violation of the terms of his $10,000 bond on which he was given his liberty, shortly after his indictment by a federal grand jury on charges of using the mails to defraud. The federal officials had ascertained his palatially furnished "temple" in Chicago with a view of transferring the headquarters of the cult to New Orleans.

PAYS CONSCIENCE MONEY TOGETHER WITH INTEREST

Appleton, Feb. 4.—Two apple re-halt dollars with the interest of twenty-five years were returned to a storekeeper today after it had troubled a quarter of a century. In casting a check some twenty-five years ago, the merchant gave a $2.50 gold-piece instead of a penny. Today the money with interest was returned. The name of the sender was not divulged.

NEW YORK JANITOR BARES BOMB PLOTS LONG MYSTERIOUS

Confesses to Death of Mrs. Herrera and Surprises Police by Other Startling Admissions.

New York, Feb. 4.—John Paul Farrell, janitor, confessed today after an all night grilling that he sent to Bernard Herrera last Sunday the bomb which resulted in the death of Mrs. Herrera and Miss Foughtman, a boarder.

Then Farrell astonished the police by reciting that he sent the bomb which killed Mrs. Helen Taylor a year ago, adding that Mrs. Taylor was his daughter and he killed her because she had "gone wrong."

He also admitted sending a bomb last year to Judge Otto Rosalsky and he explained the death of "Kid" Walker, slain in 1887. "Kid" Walker was killed, he declared, by a man named Lestrang because Walker had caused Mrs. Taylor's downfall.

The attempt on Judge Rosalsky's life, he added, was made because the judge had sentenced a criminal unnamed to twenty years imprisonment. The bomb was sent to the judge by a man known to Farrell only as Tony.

Herrera's life was sought, Farrell said, because Herrera had said he would discharge him from his job as janitor. Farrell was employed at the apartment house where Herrera is superintendent.

Before the astonished detectives the maker of deadly bombs constructed a dummy infernal machine, explained how it operated, and when the dummy would be to the person who should open it. The Taylor and Rosalsky bombs, he said, were entrusted to the mails.

In the case of Herrera, Farrell said he had crept upstairs when Herrera was away and had placed the bomb wrapped in a pasteboard box on the landing outside the door. He insisted, however, that he intended only to scare the family.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER AGROUND IN STORM

Freighter Ashore Off Long Island Calls
Out Life Savers at Early Hour Today.

New York, Feb. 4.—The Norwegian steamship Nicholas Cuneo went ashore early today on Long Beach off the southeast shore of Long Island. She struck during thick weather shortly after midnight and was slightly by the point Lookout life savers at three o'clock. All hands turned out, but after several hours struggle in the high seas were unable to board her. The life savers were still standing by at eight o'clock this morning.

The vessel is a freighter. It is believed she carries no passengers. She was bound in from the West Indies with a cargo of sugar.

NEGRO BURGLAR IS GIVEN A BEATING

Chicago Police Search for Man Who Tried to Rob Former Northwestern Athlete.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Detectives today began a search for a bruised and bleeding negro burglar who was worsted in a fight with Sylvan E. Sommer, an athlete, who is a student at Northwestern university.

Sommer had been sleeping late and early this morning fell asleep in his chair. He was awakened by a noise and found a negro man in his room. A hand to hand fight ensued which lasted half an hour, and during which the negro dropped clothing and jewelry he had picked up, but retained $4 which he had put in his pocket. Sommer finally broke away and got hold of his revolver, shooting the negro as he disappeared.

ALLIES BOMBARDED ADRIANOPE TODAY

BATTLE RENEWED BY BULGAR-
IAN AND SERVIAN TROOPS ON OLD CAPITAL OF TURKEY.

WITHSTANDS ATTACKS

Thus Far Citadel Has Been Able to Fight Off The Invading Host—
Have Forty Thousand in Garrison.

London, Feb. 4.—A terrific bombardment of the forts around Adrianople was begun last evening by the Bulgarians and Servians surrounding the city to the number of 100,000.

Almost at the moment of the conclusion of the armistice at 7 o'clock siege guns and field guns from various points commanding the forts opened fire. Not even the residential portion of the city was spared.

Opinions Vary.
There is considerable difference of opinion as to how long the fortress will be able to hold out. One dispatch from Mustafa Pasha today which reported that the heavy cannonade continued throughout the night, concluded with the prophecy made by the Bulgarian staff that two weeks would suffice for the besiegers to force the Turks to capitulate.

Prolonged Defense.
Military men, however, who know something about the several lines of forts which form the defensive of Adrianople for the other ring which the besiegers have been facing since the war began is connected with and supported by other circles of forts just as strong, look for a prolonged defense by the besieged garrison, which comprises many of the best of the Turkish regular troops.

Adrianople Satisfied.
This opinion apparently prevails within Adrianople itself. Otherwise the foreign consuls there would not have considered it necessary to ask their ambassadors to secure an escort for the foreign residents of the city who desire to pass through the lines of protection for those who remain within the gates.

Not Surrender.
Shukri Pasha, the Turkish commander, who is defending Adrianople, has declared that he will not surrender the fortress until the last of his soldiers has been killed.

Few Desertions.
While there have been some desertions from the ranks of the garrison, these have been chiefly Christian soldiers serving with Turkish regiments. Shukri Pasha still has some forty thousand men, a number which is considered sufficient to man the forts and hold out for the much greater besieging force.

Opposing Force.
The Bulgarians are said to have 550,000 men in the province of Thrace with 45,000 Servian soldiers and perhaps a few divisions of Greeks assisting them. The greater part of this force, however, is compelled to remain in front of Tehtalia and at Gallipoli in order to hold the Turkish armies concentrated at those places.

My Attack Both.
It is possible that the allies may attack one or both of these positions. If they could clear Gallipoli of Turkish troops and attack the Dardanelles straits, this would give free passage to the Greek fleet which would then be able to render some assistance at Tehtalia. On the other hand the winter season is so unfavorable for offensive operations that the allies may decide to let the Turks make the first move.

Tchatalja Stronger.
The Ottoman army at Tchatalja has greatly improved during the armistice. The soldiers are better armed than they were, sickness among them has diminished, supplies have been brought in great quantities, and fresh troops now man the string of powerful forts.

Officers Inefficient.
The great drawbacks to the success of the Turks are the political quarrels among the Ottoman officers which must tend to undermine the efficiency of the army.

Were Repulsed.
Constantinople, Feb. 4.—The garrison of Adrianople easily repulsed attack last night by the Bulgarians on the north and east front of the fortress according to the official report issued here today.

London, Feb. 4.—A full division of Bulgarian infantry advanced to the attack of Adrianople this morning under cover of a fierce bombardment according to a news agency dispatch from Sofia. The result of the assault is not yet known.

TO BUY FIRE TRUCK FROM SEAGRAVE CO.

City Council At Its Meeting This Afternoon Decided to Accept
Bid of $5300—Pass Smoke
Ordinance.

Janesville will buy its new motor-propelled chemical and hose wagon for the East Side Fire Station from the Seagrave Company. At the meeting of the City Council this afternoon it was decided to accept the bid of that company, $5300, and the city clerk and mayor were authorized to sign the contract for purchase. The Council after careful examination of all the specifications and prices submitted and investigation into the performance of the motor apparatus used in nearby cities decided that the bid of the Seagrave Company was the most acceptable.

The ordinance declaring the emission of dense smoke, given first and second readings at the last meeting of the council was passed by unanimous vote.

NO EXCEPTIONS ARE ALLOWED UNDER ACT

Circuit Judge Stevens Makes Ruling in Regard to Compensation Law in Case of Soc Road.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—The Soc line is notified in an opinion of Circuit Court Judge Stevens today that the application of the compensation act is not limited to any particular class of employees and that the road may not except any employees from the provisions of its election under the act.

Mrs. Ella Porcelson sought compensation for the death of her husband and the company refused on the ground that he met death outside the offices or shop. The court holds that the form of election filed by the road does not limit its liabilities under the act to those who are employees in the shops or offices.

REWY AGAIN HEADS STATE FAIR BOARD

James McKenzie Named as Secretary —Phehn Wants Fair Removed To Wausau.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—The state board of agriculture elected the following officers President, O. C. Rewey; vice president, J. M. J. Chryst; secretary, James C. McKenzie; executive committee, Arthur W. Phehn, George Kuitz, and A. W. Larkin.

Practically $7,500 remains in the board's treasury with which to prepare for the next fair. Mr. Phehn proposed that the state fair be removed from Milwaukee to Wausau.

PARTY LOYALTY IS FURTHER DEMANDED

In Bill Which Was Introduced by Assemblyman James Allison of Durand Today.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—Further effort to force political candidates to abide by the wishes of constituents was made in the introduction of a bill today by Assemblyman James Allison of Durand. In effect, it provides that the names of no candidates shall be printed on the official ballot used at the primary unless thirty days prior to the primary the candidate shall file an affidavit that he supported the party upon whose ticket he proposes to run, at the last election, and that he desires to have his name go as a candidate on such party or primary ballot. Another provision states that candidates must pay fees in lieu of the circulation of nomination petitions. United States senators are to pay $100, congressional candidates $50 and county officers and state legislators $10. Such fees are to be paid to the secretary of state in the case of candidates for congress, and to the county clerk in the latter case.

Favor Initiative.
The assembly adopted a resolution for a constitutional amendment for the initiative and referendum 39 to 12 the democrats furnishing most of the opposition. If adopted by the senate as expected it will go to the people.

Amendments to the income tax law were introduced by Senator Kilgus, the most important relating to assessments of corporations in the voting of excessive or unreasonable salaries to members of a firm or corporation so that the purpose of the income tax law cannot be defeated. The present rate applying to individual assessments is doubled.

The bill of assemblyman Rosa giving full value for condemned cattle showing no lesions under the tuberculin test was killed. Assemblyman Smith's bill permitting "peaceful picketing" and prohibiting coercion or influencing of employees to discharged employees also was killed.

ARMED MEN GUARD CHICAGO RE-COUNT

Sensations Expected in Election Dispute Which is Now Being Settled
With a New Count.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Sensational disclosures are expected to follow the posting of armed guards before the vaults of the city hall where the ballots are being recounted in the contest over the office of the state's attorney. The guards went on duty last night and it was reported today that a man made an attempt to evade the guards and enter the vaults shortly after midnight, but was frightened away.

Gains made by William A. Cunniff, defeated socialist candidate for state attorney over MacLay Hoyne, democrat, who was declared elected, it is said, probably will lead to a new tally of the vote of the entire county. The recount, as first ordered, covered only the wards of the city of Chicago. By this the socialist candidate has gained over 1,000 votes and a gain of eight votes to a precinct throughout the county would give him the election.

SOCIETY WOMEN ASSIST STRIKERS IN PICKETING

Boston, Feb. 4.—Several society women today joined hundreds of strikers in picketing the forty shops affected by the walkout of five thousand garment workers to enforce demands for an increase in wages and better working conditions. The women pickets were warned by the strike leaders not to resort to violence.

FOUR ATTORNEYS GIVE OPINIONS ON RECALL, TO CITY CLERK HAMMARLUND

ADVISES CITY OFFICIAL THAT PRESENT PETITIONS HAVE NOT MET WITH LAW'S REQUIREMENTS.

PETITIONS ARE INVALID

Because They Do Not State Reason for Recall and Also That All Three Officials Can Not Be Recalled at the Same Time.

In the following opinion, rendered at the request of City Clerk J. P. Hammarlund, concerning the legality of the recall petitions filed against the city council, City Attorney William H. Dougherty and Attorneys Thomas S. Nolan, M. O. Mouat and O. A. Oestreich hold that the petitions are faulty in that they do not make any specific charges against the three men and also that, though the petitions for the recall of the three officers were filed separately, they do not comply with the meaning of the state law which they hold contemplates only the recall of one officer at a time for sufficient cause.

This opinion was filed with the city clerk today and will be the basis of his decision relative to the legality of the petitions which he is now considering. It would appear that the opinion of the four attorneys who have given the question their closest attention would practically result in the throwing out of the present petitions.

On Saturday last these attorneys met in conference with the lawyers engaged by the element seeking the recall, and went over the various points at issue. Mr. Fisher of this city represented the "Committee of Twelve" who have handled the recall petitions and business of the recall movement thus far. This conference, it is understood, went into detail as to the various provisions of the law and the question was fully discussed.

Mr. Nolan, Mr. Mouat, and Mr. Oestreich have been retained by the mayor and councilmen, to look after their interests, and with City Attorney Dougherty signed the opinion which is printed below in full. The opinion is as follows:

The Opinion.
The law under which these removals are attempted provides for the removal of the mayor or other councilmen at any time. The law specifically designates its object as one of removal and provides that its processes shall be in addition to other methods of removal provided by law. It expressly sets out its own character and this refutes any notion that it is to be used as a mere method of bringing about an election.

Not For All Three.
"While the words of the recall law may perhaps be so construed as to permit of an omnibus removal, yet its plain intent, if studied without prejudice, will hardly permit of such construction. The three petitions were submitted together, and as one petition to the signers; were all signed by substantially the same parties; verified by the same parties and all signed at or about the same date; all contain identically the same headings, and it is plain to be seen that this is a proceeding to remove the council as a body at one election. That the petitions were filed at different times has no significance as against the plain purpose and intent of the movement. The whole object of the petitioners clearly is to bring about a change of administration, rather than to proceed against an individual officer by way of removal.

Not Contemplated.
"We are of the opinion that no such action was ever contemplated by the framers of this law. The argument that the lack of machinery to effect this wholesale removal, can be supplied by voluntary action, does not help out the plain purpose of the law. It might be argued with equal force that a certain construction of the law must prevail, for the reason that a substantial provision thereof could be waived, without confusion, providing everybody remained satisfied. That of course, would be nonsense. The fact that resort must be had to proceedings outside of the machinery provided is strong evidence that such proposed action was never contemplated by the framers of the law. We are unable to reconcile this law with the proposed proceedings instituted by the Recall Committee.

Individual Proceedings.
"We hold that the intent of the law was to provide for an individual proceeding, commencing with the filing of the petition and ending with the election. We agree that a petition can be filed against any one of the officers at any time but we cannot yield consent to the proposition that they can all be proceeded against as one body, or as individuals of the same body, at the same time.

Purpose of Recall.
"It is stating a fact known to everyone, when it is said that the evident purpose of a recall is to bring a public officer before those whom he was elected to represent, that they may inquire into his doings. To claim that this proceeding can be jumbled up into a mere general election for office is to deny reasonable application to the very purpose of the law. The idea that all three of these officials may be forced to stand at one election through the processes of this recall statute is so repugnant to common justice and opens the door to so much confusion that it should not be adopted unless clearly demanded. The law appears to plainly reject this idea.

Individual Proceeding.
"In matters of government, too much is hazarded to permit of indulgence in doubtful processes. We think that any fair minded citizen, upon a casual examination of the law, will agree that the plain intent was to provide an individual proceeding, and the only inquiry would be as to whether, through inaccuracy of expression, this purpose has not been made clear. Only by reason of such failure to accurately express the clear intent of the law, could it be claimed that such joint proceeding would be legal.

Without Warrant.
"We have seriously endeavored to reconcile our views with those of the committee in charge of the recall, and of their attorneys, but we are forced to the conclusion that the present proceeding is without warrant in law, and that it is your duty to so certify.

Single Petition.
"This proceeding is, in substance, a single petition for the recall of the council as a body, for a change of policy and administration, at a single election. Every mischievous result that would follow from the filing of the petitions at 'identically the same time, and thus forcing the three elections to be held at the same time, will also follow from the filing of the three petition, in this case, a day or two apart, together with the request that the elections be held on the same day.

Not Material.
"In other words, the mere fact that a short space of time intervenes between the filing of the petitions is immaterial because, if the public is to consider all three of them contemporaneously, the mischief is exactly the same as though all three were simultaneously filed.

Opportunity For Confusion.
"When resort is had to the evident purpose and intent of the recall law, as applied to this case, the proceeding is at once condemned. The opportunity for confusion that is afforded by the proposed action is of great importance to the tax paying public of this city.

"It is not necessary to go at length into all of the legal considerations that support this conclusion, as this would be labor unnecessary to the present purpose.

Provision of Law.
"The law provides that a removal by recall may be set in motion by the filing of a petition demanding the election of a successor to the person sought to be removed, such petition to contain a general statement of the grounds upon which the removal is sought. This means, as we view it, that those who complain against the official shall make a general statement of the grounds upon which their complaint is based, that the essential facts may be known by the official and by the public. This provision can be satisfied by anything short of this is to entirely rob it of any sense or purpose.

Statement of Grounds.
"The legislature surely had something in mind when it provided for this 'statement of the grounds.' That this is true is evidenced by the practical construction placed upon the law by the people of this city and in fact, it has become notorious in Janesville that this is a proceeding without, in fact, any charges whatsoever. The public has practically construed the law.

Provided For.
"This provision was devised so that citizens might set forth, in plain common sense way, the grievances that they entertained against the official. All that this law requires is that this petition speak to that common certainty which prevails in every day discussions between men. It should speak as one man speaks to another. It is conceded everywhere and among all the people of the city of Janesville that this petition does not give the slightest clue to the real grievance or even the political issue involved.

Was Pointed Out.
"This deficiency was pointed out to the committee in charge of this movement in a former opinion of the City Attorney, and in the certificate of the City Clerk certifying petitions heretofore filed as insufficient in this respect; but after careful consideration, as they say, the have elected to stand upon their former position. This stand has been deliberately taken for reasons sufficient to the gentlemen in charge of this movement. It is in no sense due to a confusion of thought or to the inaccurate expression of a novice.

A Measured Position.
"It is a measured position, taken only upon the cool calculation of experienced politicians, assisted by able counsel. It is to all intents and purposes, a deliberate refusal on the part of the committee in charge of this recall, to furnish the people with the facts that they have a right to know. No layman could draw a petition indulging in so much general insinuation with such complete absence of substance.

Character of Proceedings.
"When you keep in mind the character of the proceeding, the interpretation to be placed upon this statute is plain. It can have no other purpose than to require the petition to set out, in a general way, the facts of the removal is sought. This is not a technical construction, but one that gives to this law the only sensible effect. It is a construction that will immediately recommend itself to every fair minded citizen.

Only Generalities.
"If this requirement of the law is satisfied by simply indulging in generalities, then it might as well have been left out. The law might as well have provided for the election upon the filing of a petition containing a certain percentage of the names, and without charges of any kind. If the law is construed along this latter line, this recall statute merely amounts to a method whereby a general election can be called

FIND BODY OF YOUNG
CLEVELAND SOCIETY MAN.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 4.—The body of S. Homer Everett, the young society club and business man who mysteriously disappeared Saturday night, was found this afternoon on the lake shore at Lakewood at the foot of a high cliff. It is believed that Everett, when taken sick at a house, wandered about in a daze and fell over the cliff.

THOMAS SEXTETTE DELIGHTS HEARERS

Program Given Here Last Evening One Of Unalloyed Delight to Members of Apollo Club.

Last evening was one of pure unalloyed delight to the members of the Apollo club. The occasion marked the appearance of seven men selected from the Thomas' orchestra, under the efficient leadership of Alexander Zukowsky. It was expected that this concert would be epoch making in the history of the club, and it was. No attempt was made to present big orchestral numbers but the program was made up for the most part from the lighter, more intimate variety of selections; however this did not preclude great dramatic fire and splendid climaxes and everything was played with that beauty of tone—precision of attack and wealth of expression which might be expected of men, each a well known artist.

Mr. Zukowsky can never come to too often. In the comparatively short time he has lived in Chicago, he has forged his way to being recognized as one of the greatest in the west, and this by his wonderful art, sincerity, and earnestness as he is the least aggressive of mortals. His solos last evening thrilled the audience and demonstrations of greatest approval greeted him. A duet between the cello and flute also made a most pleasing diversion. Many old time favorites were given either regularly or as encores—such as "Anita's Dance" from Peer Gynt Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," excerpts from Tchaikovsky.

The introduction to the third act from Lohengrin was given with great breadth of tone, and brought the evening to a brilliant close.

GET A JURY TODAY IN THE BEACH CASE

Sensational Action in South Carolina Court Begins When Jury is Secured Without Difficulty.

Aiken, S. C., Feb. 4.—Ferdinand O. Beach, on trial for assaulting his wife with intent to kill, appeared in the court room an hour before the case was called. He was accompanied by Mrs. Beach, her sister, Mrs. James B. Taylor, and Miss Marion Hollings. Mrs. Beach was becomingly attired in a brown suit and brown toque and was veiled. Only twenty-two minutes was required to secure a jury. Seven of the men accepted were farmers, and the others cotton mill operatives.

BEGINNING OF LENT COMES ON WEDNESDAY

Earliest Period Since 1856—Special Services in Catholic and Episcopal Churches.

Not since 1856 has Lent began so early as it begins this year, and not until 2008 will it start so early again. Ash Wednesday is the Wednesday in the sixth week preceding Easter Sunday, the date of which is regulated by the paschal full moon, which is the full moon next after March 21. The Sunday following this moon is Easter.

Special services will be held during the forty day period in the Catholic and Episcopal churches of the city and special Lenten rules have been laid by Archbishop Messner of the Catholic church and Bishop Webb of the Episcopal church to be observed by members of the two faiths.

Sunday last was Candlemas day in the Catholic churches and all candles used in these churches were blessed at a special service. Monday was the feast day of St. Blas, martyr, and bishop, and following the old custom the threats of all true Catholics were blessed on that day.

The regulations for Lent of the archdiocese of Milwaukee, as issued by Archbishop Sebastian G. Messner were read in all of the Catholic churches on Sunday. During Lent, meat is allowed only at the principal meal on week days, except on all Wednesdays, Fridays and the Saturdays of Ember and Holy weeks.

Meat and fish are not allowed at the same meal at any time during the season. Persons excused from fast may eat meat more than once on any day it is allowed at all.

Catholics who are 21 years old are bound to fast, except those who are sick, women nursing children, those engaged in laboring occupations, and others who may be excused by special dispensation.

Irish Catholics will not be debarred this year from holding their customary celebration in honor of St. Patrick, because the 17th of March falls on Monday in Holy Week, neither will a special dispensation from Rome be required for Irish Catholics to hold celebrations. This was the statement issued yesterday by the Rev. J. K. Fleming, president of the Irish Literary society of Chicago.

"St. Patrick's day festival takes precedence over all other festive days of the Irish people," he said. "In the book of Armagh, which was transcribed in the year 708, we find that St. Patrick was entitled to four honors. The first is the festival which occurs in Lent; it provides that this festival shall be celebrated with all good cheer excepting eating of flesh, which is forbidden."

Moreover, the solemnity of Holy Week in which St. Patrick's day occurs this year, does not commence until Wednesday, and Monday would be as any other day in Lent.

"No dispensation from Rome is necessary to celebrate the day. There is no record of the church ever having interfered with the festivities of the occasion, except to grant new concessions, such as the use of meat on Friday, when the festival falls on that day."

LINK AND PIN

As it is announced that the counting of the strike votes of the 30,000 firemen on the fifty-four Eastern railroads is now proceeding daily, and the railroads concede that the vote favors a strike with all its attendant difficulties, the companies wish the public to understand the exact situation.

Railroad employees are as well, if not better, paid as labor in other employments. Railroad firemen in eighteen states, surrounded by many different conditions of work, have combined to advance demand for increased pay amounting to 35 per cent upon their present total payroll in this section.

According to the recent arbitration commission in the Engineers' case, the average wages of firemen in the district affected by the present strike vote are $2.88 per day. Ten years ago the average was about $2.05.

The average wages of the firemen who are now threatening to strike have thus been increased more than 35 per cent in the past ten years. The present demand is for 35 per cent more at one step. This would represent a total increase of 70 per cent in ten or eleven years.

Wages of other forms of railway labor have also been increasing in ascending ratio.

Railroad managers are willing and eager to pay all classes of employees as high wages as conditions will permit. It is indeed recognized that the firemen at this moment deserve special consideration.

But the wages of railroad labor can only be paid out of funds received by the railroads for services performed. If those wages absorb a constantly increasing proportion of receipts from this sole source of revenue, it is obvious that the public must pay the bill in the end.

The question the public has to answer is: How long shall this process of increases be allowed to continue.

A letter was received from H. T. Cowles, chairman of the Clinton round-house and it contains some interesting applications of the safety first in the different classes of round-house work. The letter also contains some interesting facts in regard to the development of the mighty systems of railroads.

"The world is growing wiser and older; the men growing wiser and weaker; deteriorating physically, advancing mentally. The wonderful advancement of the mental faculties enable us to perform with greater ease and dispatch the various duties assigned to us as more human beings."

"We are living in an age of progress. The nineteenth century, just recently, passed has given us some of the most marvellous inventions and creation of master minds of the world's geniuses. The minds of these men have accomplished wonders in the matter of public utilities, and the railroad men are the mind and factor in the matter of public utilities and are a prime factor in a nation's civilization. The discoveries of these great men have played a prominent part in the history of this and other nations, and the modern methods of transportation, made possible by the perfection of the locomotive, the one thing that the railroad men, as employees of a great railroad, have a principal part in carrying out of the results of these twentieth century necessities.

The locomotive has been developed from the obsolete types of Stephenson's and Cooper's, producing power enough to drive them not much faster than a good team of horses could travel, to a wonderful machine of the present day, capable of hauling a ton of freight cars, and massive Pullman trains, rushing across the country at the rate of a mile a minute. Not alone has improvement been made along the lines of locomotives, but every phase of railroad work has been progressive and ponderous machinery has been created for fast and accurate handling of railroad work.

"What has all this led up to? These huge machines have constituted themselves agents of death and destruction, when not properly handled or taken care of. The insane desire of speed has brought an increase in the number of accidents and the loss of human lives that is appalling, greater than any of our wars. This condition has been slowly brought about by the attention of the public, resulting in the passing of the liability and compensation laws, and the appointment of factory inspectors, but all these laws, important as they are, cannot begin to accomplish the results that the new safety first movement will in its perfected state. A just compensation is truly laudable, but it does not bring back the dead nor does it prevent the accidents. The safety movement should be lauded to the skies by the men employees of their dependents. The 'safety movement' has demonstrated that it lies within the hands of the railroad men for their own safety.

These huge, ponderous machines, as they stand alone are inanimate objects capable of nothing, until brought to life by the hands of man. The touching of a lever here, a valve there, creates a live, seemingly human power which results in a dangerous condition unless the men are on the alert. The employees can not be too careful in the performance of their duties, especially in the round-house. The locomotives, after leaving the round-house, are immediately sent on their run and any defect in repair work is liable to cause a wreck. Every employee should adhere to all laws governing self protection; by doing so he gives pro-

BOWELS BAD, LIVER TORPID? CASCARETS,

If Constipated, Bilious, Headachy, Stomach Sour, Get a 10-cent Box of Cascarets—Take one Tonight

You men and women who can't get feeling right—have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have back-ache and feel worn out with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the food, undigested and fermenting sour and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

Joe Greenbaum, who is managing Eddie O'Keefe, tells a funny story on his protégé.

Eddie was boxing a year before his mother discovered it. Eddie would have kept it from her even longer, only one day he came home from a fight with a black eye and face done up in bandages.

"Eddie, you have been fighting," said the mother as she surveyed her son's battered face. "For why do you fight? Why don't you get yourself a good job?"

When she was through with her lecture, O'Keefe pulled $100 out of his pocket and handed it to her. She counted it over and then asked: "Did you get this for fighting?"

"Yes, mother."

"Eddie, when do you fight again?" she anxiously inquired as she tucked the bills in the bureau drawer.

Jimmy Archier, who was the Chicago Cubs' mainstay behind the last year and who will probably divide honors with Bresnahan in 1913, is one of the few "conehats" in the history of baseball. In 1907 he was sent to Buffalo. There he showed to such good advantage that he was picked up by the Chicago Nationals the next year. Last season he batted .238 and fielded .966.

Bat Nelson's recent marriage to a pretty Denver girl has filled him with new courage and determination to keep his hand in the fighting game.

CLABBY WINS EASILY IN BOUT WITH BROWN

Chicago Greek Has Little Chance Against Opponent in Uninteresting Fight at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 4.—Clever and scientific boxing gave Jimmy Clabby of Hammond a clear cut victory over George ("Knockout") Brown of Chicago in a ten round bout last night before the Milwaukee A. C.

As predicted, the Greek never had a chance against the clever Hoosier. Brown's only hope for a victory was to land a decisive right or left swing. This he failed to do, but Brown must be given credit for putting up a game and stubborn fight against one of the cleverest boxers in the middleweight division. Clabby's ring generalship and clever foot work enabled him to keep out of range of Brown's wild and vicious swings, which the Greek uncensored in every round.

The only damage done in the fight was when Brown planted a rich cross on Clabby's left eye which caused it to swell shut in the following session. Although Brown was the receiver general of most of Clabby's well aimed and timely punches, the Greek bore no marks of battle as he left the ring.

It was an uninteresting fight to watch. There was too much bullying and resting with infighting, which the average spectator does not care to see. Brown was accused of holding repeatedly and the bosses of holding this sort of work drew from the spectators was due to the fact that the spectators did not understand his style of fighting.

It is true the Greek covered up continually and would not box all day long. In all his bouts, Brown has been in from bell to bell and long on body punches to so weaken an opponent that he can land one of his wild haymakers.

Clabby, on the other hand, gave a great exhibition of the manly art. He showed more speed and cleverness than in his battle with Brown a year ago, and his punches were better timed and had more power behind them.

Clabby showed that he is a full pegged middleweight by easily making 158 pounds three and a half hours before the fight. He was in great shape and was as strong at the finish as in the middle of the bout.

In the eighth round semi-winning the referee stopped the fight in the eighth round and gave the decision to Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, McCue's opponent. Freddie Andrews of Milwaukee had been knocked down for the count of nine and as McCue was hating Andrews around the ring the referee stopped the fight. Andrews went to the canvas in the fourth round as a result of a right cross to the jaw, but was the aggressor during the last of the fight.

"It's the custom of newly married boxers to bet, saying 'my wife won't let me fight,'" remarked Bat the other day. "In my case I want to say that now I have somebody to fight for, I must keep busier than ever. If I have to box right along to support one person, I certainly must keep busier than ever to support two." Bat is especially anxious to get a chance at Champion Willie Ritchie.

at any time without regard to the faults or shortcomings of the incumbent, or, in fact, without any reference to the method in which he has conducted the business of the office.

Under That View, the grounds stated would not need to be pertinent to the business of the office at all, but the petition might be put upon the grounds that certain things had happened, over which this incumbent, obviously had no control. There seems to be absolutely no room for this construction. It was certainly never intended that the recall should be used as a mere political instrument to bring about a change of office.

Former Opinion. "You will be guided in your investigations of the signatures by the opinion of the city attorney upon the former petitions. You should get the best information you can upon this issue of fact and decide as you find the facts to be. If you find in the getting of these petitions there is sufficient fraud and misrepresentation, or other reasons why the signatures should be rejected, then you should hold the petition insufficient for this reason."

BARTENDERS IN ATTACK ON DRY ZONE MEASURE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—Branding the proposed five-mile limit law to create a dry zone about the University of Wisconsin as a "fanatic temperance law," the Madison Bartenders' Union has adopted resolutions in opposition to the measure. The meeting was addressed by G. V. Bartell, secretary of the unionists that the united support of all the labor organizations in the city would be behind them in their opposition to any such law. Delegates were chosen to present the Union laboring men's view.

BABY A SIGHT WITH ECZEMA

Mother Thought He Couldn't Be Worse. Resinol Acted Like A Charm.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 6, 1912.—"I wish you could have seen my baby before he was born. I got no sleep at night, and I was so nervous. He is now one year old, and the eczema started when he was about a month old. I was ashamed to let anyone see him. His little face was a sight. I thought he would never have any hair on his head at all. I used—remedies for eczema."

"Then I thought I would try Resinol Soap and Ointment. I thought the child

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Janesville and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday, colder to-night.

TOO MUCH FREE SPEECH.

A professor of Wesleyan university in Connecticut has been asked to resign the chair of economics and social science because in a speech recently delivered the professor said that he "believed he would close up the church temporarily, as an experiment and because if there were not churches open for a time people would be constrained to turn to more important duties." When Professor Willard C. Fiske, for twenty-one years connected with the university, was called to task by the president, that gentleman frankly admitted the impracticability, and submitted gracefully to the demand for his resignation.

A great Apostle has observed that there is a time and a place for all things. It is apparent that Prof. Fiske was not heeding that admonition. Free speech is one thing, but there are certain amenities of speech and obligations involved in the use of speech that must be observed. Prof. Fiske now has the whole world before him, and he can say elsewhere what he wants to say without overstepping the bounds of loyalty and decorum.

The professor has been flirting with the socialistic body. They may like that sort of thing, but the sober-minded verdict of the average citizen will approve the action of Wesleyan's president, and disagree with the statement that churches ought to be closed up even temporarily. The business world never needed them more, and our politicians need another kind of spiritual help badly.—Wall Street Journal.

The trend of the times is away from the church, but it becomes a college professor to encourage neglect, and the president of Wesleyan was wise in taking prompt action. It will be a sorry day for the nation, if the churches are ever abandoned.

February has thus far had no lack of cold storage facilities and if the rest of the month is like the start the ground-hog was a wise old chap to stay under ground for six weeks longer.

Janesville should have an automobile show this winter and make the affair an annual event. It brings lots of visitors to the city and attracts attention to the progress Janesville is making as an exhibition center.

Pauline Wayne will appear in the suffragist parade in Washington on Wilson's inauguration day if the Washington college boys do not break up the line of march with mice, as they threaten to.

In England people who live in glass houses appreciate the meaning of the saying more than those who live in cement cellars. The suffragists are marching.

The small boy who received skis from Santa, Christmas time, did not envy the boy with skates then, but now he wishes he could trade presents with him.

Tomorrow marks the first day of Lent—Ash Wednesday. For the next forty days it will be observed throughout the Christian world.

Turkey now realizes that the Allies meant every word they said when they stated they would resume fighting at once.

Congress is having a mighty struggle over the duty on Epstein suits. Well, other people have had similar struggles.

That July home-coming promises to be a time for real celebration.

MARDI GRAS FESTIVITIES HOLD SWAY IN FRANCE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Paris, Feb. 4.—All Paris, and, in fact, nearly all France, passed in the customary pursuits of business today to participate in the festivities attendant upon the annual celebration of Mardi Gras. The celebration centered in the capital, which became the objective point for thousands of visitors from the provinces. The pageant of King Carnival, which was the feature of the day, was more than ordinarily elaborate and attractive.

OFFICERS' STRIKE MAY TIE UP STEAMSHIPS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Feb. 4.—The steamship Canada of the Fabre line, sailed for New York with a staff of officers from the port of St. Maie. The strike still continues and efforts are made by the officers who deserted their ships to induce their comrades arriving in port on other vessels to join in the movement. The cause of the strike is stated to have been the failure of the companies to grant improved conditions and pay for the officers.

FONDNESS FOR WHISKEY CAUSES THIEF'S ARREST

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, Feb. 4.—An irresistible fondness for whiskey resulted in the capture by the police of William Lintner, a burglar early today. Lintner was robbing a saloon on West Madison street, and during his operations indulged frequently in liquor from a bottle found on the bar. Finally he sat down in a chair with a basket filled with "swag" by his side and fell asleep. He was awakened by the jolting of the patrol wagon enroute to the station.

"Old John Barleycorn is some copper ain't he?" observed the prisoner, as he was being escorted to a cell.

DELIBERATELY LIED TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

Mexican Diplomat Admits That He Deceived Americans and That Situation Is Desperate.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Mexico City, Mex., Feb. 4.—"I lied to the American government for ten months telling them that the Mexican revolution would be over in six weeks. I was forced to invest my diplomatic mission with a domino and mask." This statement was made by Manuel Calero, formerly Mexican ambassador to the United States during the discussion of the loan measure in the senate last night. He continued: "The truth is that the department of finance has not printed the situation as it really is. We should speak the truth though it destroys us. The truth is that the situation is desperate." His speech created a tremendous sensation.

Ernesto Madero minister of finance, replied calling Manuel Calero "an indecorous ambassador and a bad financier."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 2, 1913.

Editor Janesville Gazette.
Dear Sir:—Will you please send me price of your valuable paper, (weekly). Being an old resident of Janesville and having been away from there many years, I can't help of often going back in memory of the Old Home City, and fond recollections of the past rushes. I have lived in Janesville many times through my memory. Many changes have taken place since the years of '73 and '80 in those days I was in the employ of the Singer Mfg. Co. in your beautiful city. But time works wonders as we journey down life's ways and now I am in the employ of the Peoria Journal. Little did I think in those days I could or would become a modest newspaper man. But I am and have been for quite a number of years. About seven years ago I paid a visit to my brother, M. C. Olin at that time in good health and an old time resident of Janesville. We were reared on a farm between Janesville and Exot in the town of Turtle, five and a half miles from Exot and nine miles from Janesville. How I would like once more to be the old home of my childhood, what fond memories of recall to those happy days of my childhood down on that old Rock prairie farm. My father came there from Oakkosh in '58, when I was yet a small boy, I can remember there were no fences in many places between our old home and the city of Janesville. We used to make short cuts across the prairie in going to Janesville and come out over on what was then known as the old "Singer" road, west of what was then called the Bill Road farm, and at that time was a small city, not more than three or four thousand people and that village of Shoptere was a mere trading post for the nearby farmers. Our home was just two and a half miles west of Shoptere, that village being our postoffice, with Thomas Holmes as postmaster, and James Parker, justice of peace. Parker and Holmes run a grocery there and accumulated much wealth. They are long since passed away.

I am well known among old residents in Janesville, I worked for W. B. Stoddard for three years when he was running the junk trade.

I can write more and will at another time on times of the early days of Rock county.

Yours very respectfully,

C. C. OLIN,

Care Peoria Journal.

JAPANESE NATIONAL BUDGET OVER THREE HUNDRED MILLION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Tokio, Japan, Feb. 4.—The Japanese budget for this year shows a total ordinary revenue of $264,875,000 and an extraordinary revenue of $27,585,000. The ordinary expenditures amount to $214,000,000 and the extraordinary expenditures to $51,500,000. There was a surplus of about $2,700,000 from 1912. The Japanese diet will reconvene tomorrow. Another adjournment may be taken before the budget is introduced.

REPORTS ON TWINE PLANT AT THE STATE'S PRISON

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—Warden Donald Woodward of the Wisconsin state prison who conferred with the board of control on prison problems today stated that the binder twine plant is turning out over six tons daily and negotiations to market the product will be begun soon.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Myrtle Winter was pleasantly surprised last evening by twenty-five of her friends, the party having taken place at Miss Winter's home on Terrace street. The occasion was in honor of Miss Winter's eighteenth birthday and also the twentieth birthday of Miss Alice Frederickson. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games and at midnight a three course supper was served. The guests departed in the wee small hours of the morning and all wished the two young ladies many happy returns of the occasion.

February Term Day: Business in connection with matters scheduled on the county court calendar for the February term were considered before Judge Sale today. Out of town attorneys who had business in the court were: T. B. Woolsey, J. C. Ford and J. B. Dow. Beloit: R. M. Richmond, Evansville: L. R. Gottle, Edgerton.

Charged With Theft: Helme Widenford was arraigned in the municipal court this morning charged with the theft of a Norfolk jacket owned by Margaret Joyce. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned and was sent to the county jail in default of three hundred dollars bail. Later his wife visited him and later returned the jacket. He will be brought up for trial tomorrow morning at ten.

BILL MAKES FELONY OF "FEE-SPLITTING"

Drastic Measure Introduced Into Assembly This Morning—Would Further Limit Saloons—Other Matters.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—Wisconsin physicians stand in jeopardy of the loss of their certificates for the practice of medicine if they enter into any arrangement for "fee-splitting" according to the terms of a bill introduced this morning by Assemblyman Frederick of Monroe county. Fee-splitting is made a felony punishable by imprisonment of not more than five years in state's prison. That there should be no mistake in the legal interpretation of fee-splitting, the bill defines it in detail.

"A split fee," says the bill, "is any giving of value paid, passed over, or given by any person to another person as a consideration that such other person shall cause any third person desiring medical or surgical treatment or residence or treatment in any hospital or sanitarium of any kind, to be treated by any particular person or institution, giving such services or treatment."

The legislature held short sessions last night, and adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

Would Limit Saloons.

Assemblyman Philip Gannon of Superior offered a bill greatly modifying the Barker law restricting the number of saloons in Wisconsin municipalities. It limits the number of licenses to one in every 500 inhabitants, instead of 200 as at present. Licenses shall be issued only to individuals and the license-issuing authorities may, for cause shown, authorize the transfer of a license to a new location. This bill makes the change effective the first Tuesday in July, 1917.

Assemblyman Walsh, Milwaukee, introduced a bill to give relief from long Sunday hours to drug store employees. It provides that drug stores may not keep open between the hours of 8 and 10 a. m. and 5 and 8 p. m. on the first day of the week, that they shall work only 65 hours weekly, and shall have twenty-four hours off duty every fourteen hours. This is similar to the New York and Oregon laws on the subject.

Mr. Walsh also had a bill requiring railroad, telegraph or public utility companies to pay their employees bi-weekly or at shorter intervals if agreed upon. There are some exceptions, such as traveling agents. Attorney Alfred Yankauer of New York presented a bill for $3,647.07 as total commissions on collections of inheritance taxes on estates of non-resident decedents in New York state. By a contract entered into several years ago with the Wisconsin state officials, he is entitled to 10 per cent on all collections, but may draw not more than $500 on any one estate. The Marshall Field estate yielded in Wisconsin a tax of $75,000, that of Russell Sage paid $124,500. The claim was for services in connection with 39 estates.

No more will conveyors of real estate be permitted to write "Consideration $1" in a deed of sale, if that was less than the actual consideration, if a bill introduced in the upper house last night by Senator True becomes law. The bill not only provides that the true consideration shall be named in the deed, but it is required that where the consideration named covers more than the real estate, the facts shall be stated. No deed may be recorded, if the bill passes, unless accompanied by an affidavit that the facts recited in the conveyance respecting the consideration are true.

Another bill by Senator True provides for the publication by the state of 2,500 copies of the state historical society.

The senate was in session about five minutes, Senator Martin, president, presiding.

PAIR OF OVERSHOES WAS NOT SUFFICIENT

Charles Hamilton, Though Having One New Pair, Steals Another That He Finds Outside Store.

Not content with wearing a pair of new overshoes which he claimed were purchased at a rummage sale, Charles Hamilton yesterday afternoon boldly picked up a pair that were hanging outside the Grubb store on W. Milwaukee St., stowed them under his coat and calmly walked away. The theft was noticed by a customer in the store and the police were at once sent hunting for Hamilton who was found with the shoes on his person in a bar-room near the Northwestern depot. When arraigned in court this morning on a charge of larceny Hamilton pleaded guilty and was sentenced to ten days imprisonment in the county jail. It is believed that the expectation of being sent to jail for a long term so that he could spend the rest of the winter in ease and comfort. If this was the case he was disappointed. Hamilton says he came to Janesville from Dubuque.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST LAYMEN WILL MEET

Chattanooga Mecca of Members of That Denomination From Maryland To Texas This Week.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

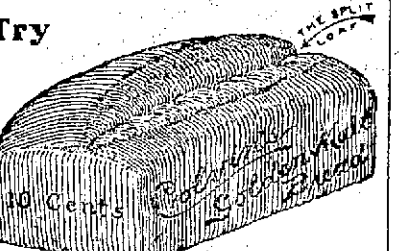

Chattanooga, Tenn., Feb. 4.—The first laymen's convention of the Southern Baptist church, which had its formal opening in this city today, has made Chattanooga the mecca for leading members of that denomination from Maryland to Texas, from Missouri to Florida, and from all the intervening states. Two thousand delegates are in the city and more are arriving on every train. The hotels are filled and many private homes have been thrown open for the entertainment of the visitors. The convention sessions are being held in the city auditorium and will continue three days. The work of the church in all its phases is to be exhaustively discussed. At the afternoon and evening meetings many speakers of wide prominence are to be heard. Among those whose names appear on the program are Governor Hooper of Tennessee, Governor Brown of Georgia, Lieutenant Governor Smith of South Carolina, J. Campbell White of North Carolina, President Mitchell of the University of Texas, President Poter of Wake Forest College, and President Brooks of Baylor University.

INSECTS CAUSE LOSS OF MILLIONS TO FARMERS

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—"The farmers of Wisconsin are losing eight to ten million dollars every season because of the ravages of insect pests, and this loss is occasioned in part because the farmers do not adopt methods that will rid them of their enemies," said Prof. J. G. Sanders of the university before the farmers' short course. He said that about 10 per cent of the total value of all the products of the state are consumed by insects.

RUSH FOR MATERIAL AT LEGISLATIVE LIBRARY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—At the legislative reference library 503 requests for bills and resolutions had been received today, and it was the belief of the librarians that the next two weeks will witness a call for 1,000 more. One of the more important measures now being framed looks to compensation for occupational diseases, an investigation of which subject is called for by the republican state platform. Enough information has been collected by the department to warrant the early introduction of the bill, applying to certain common occupational diseases.

WILL INTRODUCE BILLS ON INSURANCE MATTERS

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—Bills embodying the recommendation of the legislative fire insurance investigating committee, which has been at work since the 1911 legislature closed, will probably be introduced next week. They will come before the two houses as committee measures, the limit in the introduction of new bills, expiring Feb. 7. The committee will hold its final meeting Friday to go over the bills which have been drafted. Until that time their contents will not be made public.

On Advertising A Store:

Advertising is a mighty force in these days — and a force for good, because in the long run only a good store or a good commodity can endure the light of publicity; and, being good, the attraction of a large and growing colony of users — enables the owners to make the desired thing or commodity better and better. The world has never been served so well as today. Money has never before had such buying power in securing necessities, comforts and luxuries. Advertising has been the equal partner of invention in making this true.

Married at Rockford: Miss Maggie Leng of Rockford and Paul Jensen of Edgerton were married at Rockford, Saturday morning, by the Rev. Martin, the ceremony being performed at the Methodist parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen will make their home in this city.

Had Long Fire Run: The fire department was called out to a stove house on State street near the Blind Institute to put out a fire. A stove had been placed in the cellar to keep the 3000 cabbages stored there from freezing. The pipe which was run out through the cellar window became overheated and set fire to the straw packing placed about it and also the window frame. The occupants of the house had the fire under control when the firemen arrived and it was not necessary to use any chemicals. The chief's auto and fire police patrol made the run.

Given Days of Grace: James Simpson was arrested in the municipal court this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication. On his promise to stop drinking his case was adjourned for two weeks.

John P. Hayes: The condition of John P. Hayes, the carpenter who fell from the third to the first floor yesterday morning, striking on his head, was reported to be very much better this afternoon. He is resting more easily and no paralysis has developed. It is thought that the injuries to his spine are not as serious as was feared yesterday.

Mild in East: Chief of Police Appleby, who returned from Albany and Buffalo, New York, Sunday evening, reports that the weather in the east is very mild and that in coming westward no snow was encountered until central Ohio was reached. The Hudson river from Albany to New York remained free of ice and open to navigation until a few days ago. This is the latest date for navigation in 103 years.

The bargain event of the year, T. P. Burns' annual February Clearing Sale. Everything in the whole store marked at a big reduction. Hundreds of women bought Saturday and today and saved money.

T. P. BURNS.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Osgood, 414 S. Bluff street, Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The tremendous savings made possible by this store during our Annual February Clearance Sale, cannot be equalled elsewhere, because our regular prices are not equalled elsewhere.

SHOW AN INTEREST IN SCHOOL PROBLEM

Supt. Antisdel Fined Encouragement in Attitude of Members of Legislature.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
"I was agreeably surprised at the interest which is being taken by the members of the Wisconsin legislature in rural school problem," said County Supt. Antisdel in regard to his visit in Madison last week where he attended the annual convention of the county superintendents. "I believe that it will be productive of some needed reforms in the public school system of the state."

"In many cases the measures which have been introduced in the present legislature on the subject of rural schools will not pass, but at the same time the interest in the problem is encouraging to school men. I met a number of our members of both houses and discussed various matters. They all seemed anxious to be posted on the situation which argues good for our country schools."

Mr. Antisdel stated that the county superintendents were generally in favor of the county board of education plan which has been proposed in the legislature with the exception of the feature which provided that the clerk or official who will correspond to the present superintendents shall be appointed by the board. Election of this official by the people as at present was considered more satisfactory by the majority of the superintendents.

RESCUED FROM CANAL BY VERY QUICK WORK

William Burgett Falls into Race of City Ice Company Last Monday Afternoon.

William Burgett, superintendent in charge of the construction of the new railroad bridge across the Rock river, had a narrow escape from drowning late Monday afternoon when he slipped into the canal, or race-way, of the City Ice company and was only rescued by the prompt work of Mr. Thompson, an employee of the ice company, who caught his shoulder with a big ice hook and dragged him to safety. Mr. Burgett was crossing the ice to where men were at work when he slipped into the canal where the ice was drawn up to the ice house, and he might have been swept under the ice had it not been for the prompt work of Thompson, who spied his predicament and helped him out.

The City Ice company will resume cutting on Thursday morning. Today gangs of men are at work marking the ice and making ready for a prompt harvest when the time comes. Sam Litt, manager of the ice company, complains over the lack of men wanting work, even at much higher wages than are usually paid. This morning he visited Beloit, accompanied by his partner, Charles Atwood, to watch operations there. The Beloit company began cutting on Sunday morning and have not yet completed their harvest.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Dr. James Gibson, Janesville, Wis., Whereas, it has pleased the Father of us all, in his infinite wisdom to send the inevitable summons to our friend and brother, Dr. James Gibson, be it Resolved,

In the death of Dr. Gibson, this city and the profession of which he was an honored member, have lost a valued co-worker and associate, a man of strong personality and sterling qualities of mind and heart; be it resolved,

That his brother physicians in meeting assembled do profoundly deplore the early calling from active work, of one so highly esteemed and respected, and do hereby extend to his brothers and sisters our sympathy in this hour of bereavement. Resolved,

That this testimonial be spread upon the minutes of the records of the Rock County Medical Society, and also published in the daily Janesville papers, and that a copy thereof be enclosed and transmitted to the family.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Dr. John E. Richards, Janesville, Wis., Whereas, it has pleased our Supreme Master to remove from our midst our worthy brother, Dr. John B. Richards; be it resolved,

That the members of the Medical profession express at this time their respect for this honest and upright man, and deplore his loss from our city.

Dr. Richards possessed a quality of mind and heart which won for him a host of friends during his many years of professional life. He was genial and generous with a pleasing personality and kindly heart.

Resolved: That the Rock County Medical Society tender to his bereaved widow and family assurance of our sympathy, and that these resolutions be entered on the records of the society, and that copies be sent to the family, and to the city papers for publication.

SEE SPRING STYLES; FORGET ABOUT COLD

Women Admire Dainty Spring Goods in Shop Windows and Don't Mind Zero Blasts.

"Wouldn't that make a perfectly adorable summer house dress?" remarked one of a group of ladies standing in front of a local shop window in which was displayed the very first and latest of the spring dress goods. The zero blast which drove one of the members of the party from her feet, but she did not mind. "Oh, what lovely patterns," she gasped as she recovered her balance. "I must get the prices on them at once."

"Lovely," "charming," "too sweet for anything," were descriptive terms that could be caught by the chance nipping wind, providing he did not have his ears too wrapped up in protecting his hair.

"It's getting cold," finally remarked one of the window gazers, as she held her muff to her face. "Let's go inside and take a closer look at those dainties and lawns. I simply can't leave them." The others evidently had begun to notice the cold too for they followed into the store. Later they came out carrying bundles and dressmakers' millinery gowns. And maybe the winter's coat bill is still unpaid. Who knows?

TO HOLD EXHIBITION OF CHILDREN'S WORK

Drawings of Graded Pupils Will Be Displayed at Various Rooms on Special Days During February.

An exhibit of children's drawings will be shown at the various ward buildings of the city during the month of February. Special days will be announced by the teachers for the reception of the patrons of our schools. The charts will finally be taken to the art room of the Lincoln school where they can be seen at any time.

It is the purpose of the charts to show by a few examples of good work, how the lessons have developed from one exercise to another until a final result is reached.

The equipment for the teaching of drawing has recently been improved in both quality and price. The drawing books now contain fine reproductions in every medium from the work of real artists giving the children a fine source of illustrative material. It is the purpose of these books to make the child not only familiar with color and form as they appear about him, but to lead him to an appreciation of home and civic beauty by examples of beautiful color harmonies, designs and architecture. Some time is given to original problems after being given an understanding of the underlying principles.

The study of color has been this year enriched by the installation of an improved color box. The theory of color mixing has caused some deviation from the regular work that should have been taken in the upper grades, but because of its importance the time was not to have been wasted.

Signed,
ALIDA CHASE,
Supervisor of Drawing.

FAREWELL SURPRISE GIVEN LAST NIGHT

Hundred Friends Gather at Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, Town of Janesville.

Nearly a hundred friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kennedy gathered at their home in the town of Janesville, four miles north-west of this city, last evening, to give them a farewell surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy sold their farm last fall and expect to move to Janesville about March 1.

The evening was very pleasantly spent at cards and a short musical program was enjoyed. Honors at cards were won by Miss Hazel Connors and Frank Stricker, and consolation went to Patrick Reilly and Miss Genevieve Kealy. The guests presented their host and hostess with a beautiful chair and all wished them happiness in their new home in Janesville. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. Kennedy has been one of the buyers for Carle & Borden, tobacco dealers, for several years past.

EVENING OF KIPLING FOR TWILIGHT CLUB

William Lloyd Davis of University Extension Department Engaged to Give Entertainment.

Entertainment of a novel character has been provided for the next meeting of the Twilight Club. Instead of the usual program of addresses and discussion there will be given a Kipling night, the entire entertainment being provided by William Lloyd Davis of the extension division of the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Davis comes recommended as a lecturer and entertainer of unusual talent. He illustrates his lecture with dramatic readings from that author. One of his most effective selections is said to be "The Hanging of Denny Deaver," from the "Barrack Room Ballads." Mr. Frank Jackman has charge of the next meeting of the Twilight Club to be held this coming Tuesday.

LEAVES LEGISLATURE TO ENTER CONGRESS

State Senator E. E. Browne Will Resign March 1 to Represent Eighth District in House.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., Feb. 4.—Senator E. E. Browne will resign his legislative post about March 1 to take his seat in congress from the Eighth district. Whether there will be a special election to fill the vacancy is not yet known. Should a vacancy occur in January, the governor is obliged, according to the statutes, to call a special election. Upon the necessity of calling an election after that date the statutes are not clear, and there is such a conflict with the provisions of the state constitution that Senator Browne has called upon the attorney general for an opinion.

Men in the Eighth district with the senatorial bee are said to be none too anxious to enter an election contest this spring, preferring to wait until real issues are up for consideration, when a larger vote will be called out. Former Assemblyman O. L. Olen of Clintonville is a possible candidate, and Assemblyman Don C. Hall of Stevens Point may enter the race. Two years ago, when Senator Browne was a candidate for re-election Hall was his opponent at the primaries.

Several candidates for the vacancy caused by the death of Assemblyman Schwittay of Marinette county are in the field. William F. Haase, a university law student, has announced his candidacy for the republican ticket. He has just passed his majority, but the fact he has never voted is no bar to his eligibility. In the event of his elevation he will be the youngest member of the legislature. The county is normally republican. Former Assemblyman P. H. Hanson is also a candidate.

The regular compensation of $500 and mileage will be paid to each new member elected.

It's Worth More than it Costs You

OF COURSE you admit the value of the automobile for any one who has to go from one place to another—and wants to get there and back quickly. We all agree on that point.

The cost of the automobile is what is worrying you, maybe.

You wonder is it worth the money—to you.

Have you ever noticed that when a man buys an automobile, and, after using it, either in his business or for pleasure, or for both, sells it, always buys another one?

Yes? Well, that's the answer.

Buy an automobile, find out that its price is an investment rather than an expense, and you can't do without it. You wouldn't want to.

Because you will have found that the car is worth more to you than it cost you, that it has added to your capacity of doing business, that it made one hour do the work of three; that the store, the theatre, the folks ten miles away, have suddenly become your next-door neighbors, that it has given a store of health to you and your family.

Which automobile?

The Overland—because it is the best value that money can buy.

Whatever your notions are as to what an automobile should be, to do justice to your requirements, whether you value power, comfort, impressive appearance, low cost of upkeep, or the kind of durability—Overland durability—that makes the possession of a car a source of downright satisfaction, you can't afford to consider any automobile without first investigating the new Overland.

At least come and take a look at it. Compare it with others. Let us give you a ride in the big, fully equipped Overland; it involves no obligation on your part. Then draw your own conclusions.—That's all.

The Evening Chit-Chat

OUR KIND RELATIVES.

WHY is it, I wonder, that the average relative regards it as one of his—or more likely her—unavoidable duties to frankly criticize everything about her closest relative.

If you show a new gown or hat to a friend, she will pick out all the best points about it, all the allurement that induced you to buy it, and warm the coles of your heart by commenting upon them. "Isn't it a wonderful color," she will say, "and what cunning buttons! Try it on let me see how it looks on you. What a pretty skirt, and so becoming to you. Makes you look so slender. Yes, it certainly is a bargain."

Show the same gown to your relative, and though she may see the good points, she certainly gives no sign of having done so. On the contrary she kindly points out any disadvantages which she fears may have escaped your eye. "The waist is a little too small across the back, isn't it, and the sleeves are too short. Queer how they almost always make the sleeves too short. It is a lovely color, isn't it, but so trying. Too bad so few people can wear it. That lace is cheap, but then, they always put cheap lace in ready-made things. That's one of the reasons why I like to have my things made up. Of course you can rip it out and put in something better."

The closer the relationship, the closer is the degree of frankness, of course. By the way, have you ever happened to notice how the word "frank" like the word "criticism," has been given an unpleasant meaning by usage. "Criticism" originally meant "to pass judgement on the merits or qualities of." Evidently the judgment was usually unfavorable, for criticism is now generally used in the sense of "pick flaws." The first meaning given for "frank" is "free in uttering one's real opinion." For at that, the opinion might be the most favorable in the world. But somehow, when anyone says, "I am going to be frank with you" we don't usually anticipate praise—nor get it, either.

To return to the original subject—the other day I showed a new gown to a very close relative, and she delivered a monologue somewhat like the above upon it. One or two things she did praise, but for the most part she picked out flaws. "Well," I sighed to myself, as I laid it away in my tissue paper bed of state, "I'm sorry she doesn't like it, for she has good taste."

What was my astonishment to hear later from a mutual friend that she, my critical relative, had been praising my gown to others as one of the loveliest she had seen. She had even compared it favorably to a Parisian creation of one of her wealthy friends, which she had been praising to me. And yet, from her comments I had actually thought she didn't like it. Is unfavorable criticism really a duty we owe our relatives. Must we keep all our pleasant words for our friends?

I wonder.

Domestic Science DEPARTMENT

CONDUCTED BY Mrs. Alice Gitchell Kirk

knives at the right, with the sharp edge of the blade turned in and half an inch at least from the edge of the table.

Place the fork at the left with the tines up and far enough from the knife to leave room enough for the plate. Spoon at the right of the knife.

Fourth—Napkins placed by the fork.

Fifth—Glasses at the tip of the knife. Never hold near the top nor all too full.

Sixth—Place bread and butter plates just above the napkins at the left of the tip of the fork.

Seventh—Carving knife and fork at father's right hand.

Eighth—Cups and saucers at mother's left hand.

Ninth—Place the sugar bowl in front of mother's place. (Always have it well filled.)

Tenth—Place the salt and pepper shakers at each side of the table.

Twelfth—The plates should be warmed before the meal is served; also the meat platter and vegetable dishes.

Thirteenth—While the food is being cooked place the cold food on the table. Fill the cream pitcher and place at the right of sugar bowl. Cut the butter in even squares and put on the butter plates.

Fourteenth—When the food is ready to be served bring the plates and place at father's place, between his knife and fork.

Fifteenth—Place the tea and hot water or coffee at mother's right hand.

Sixteenth—Place the meat platter directly in front of father's place, and the vegetable dish with tablespoon at his right hand. Next Saturday I will tell you how the meal should be served.

Souffles and Timbales.

The crucial test of an excellent cook is in the preparation and baking of souffles. Especially the baking. Only practical experience leads to perfection, though in reality it is an easy matter if the making and baking are carefully and thoughtfully done; but the main point really is in the baking. Well do we remember the old-time recipes for souffles, which said "Bake in a hot oven and serve immediately or they will surely fall." If such directions are followed a crust forms quickly over the top leaving the center soft, and the souffle surely must fall as soon as removed from the oven. Again if the heat is too great in the beginning of the baking, the crust forms before it has a chance to rise. If not hot enough, the expansion of the air is not possible, which would also result in failure. Have a moderately hot oven, put in the souffle and do not open the oven door for at least fifteen minutes and twenty minutes is better. It should finish in thirty or forty minutes. Serve at once. If possible, if not cover with a hot dish.

To successfully make souffles good eggs are necessary, beating the yolks and whites separately. And here is where the real art lies in the making, incorporating all the air possible into the eggs while beating. Then the expansion of this air by moderate baking, gives a light delicate souffle. Cut and fold in the whites at the very last moment.

It is a most useful way of using "leftovers" in fruits, vegetables or meat, and is always a favorite, dainty dish.

Basis for All Souffles.

Materials—White sauce 1 c. or slightly thick sauce of bread crumbs and milk, cooked, chopped meat, poultry, fish, cheese, etc., 1/2 to 1 c., eggs, 1 to 4.

Directions—Add the meat to the hot sauce, sometimes the meat is very dry or the fish or vegetables very moist, then more milk or bread crumbs may have to be added accordingly. When cool add the well-beaten yolks, seasoning as needed, and fold in the stiffly-beaten whites. Will buttered molds—or a single one—stand in a pan of hot water and bake as described above. Serve in the dish in which it is baked.

Fish Timbales.

Material—White fish, 1-2 pound; soft, fine white bread crumbs, 1 cup; milk, 1/2 cup; cream, 8 tablespoons; salt, 1 teaspoonful; whites of eggs, 5; white pepper.

Utensils—Food chopper, measuring cup, tablespoon, teaspoon, double boiler, wine sieve, egg beater, bowl, molds.

Directions—Put the uncooked fish twice through the food chopper; cook milk and bread crumbs in the double boiler until a smooth paste. When cold add it gradually to the fish and press through the sieve. Add cream, salt, pepper and the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Butter small timbale molds and line the bottoms with paper cut to fit. Decorate with truffles, mushrooms, pimientos or peas and fill in the mixture. Stand in a baking pan half filled with boiling water, cover the tops with greased paper and bake in a moderate oven twenty minutes and serve with lobster, shrimp or crab sauce.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

TRUE courage is not incompatible with nervousness; and heroism does not mean the absence of fear, but the conquest of it. —Van Dyke.

HELPFUL HINTS.

When making gravy, if you have a ginger snap add it well crumbled to the gravy for thickening instead of flour. It gives a rich color to the gravy.

To remove machine or carriage grease from clothing, rub well with lard, and after standing for an hour or two wash with hot soap suds.

Fruit stains of any kind may be removed by placing the stained portion of the cloth over a bowl and pouring boiling hot water over the stain. It will gradually fade away.

Coffee, tea or cocoa stains should be soaked in cold water for an hour, then wring dry and proceed as for fruit stains, pouring boiling water through the stained portion.

When leaving wood pails and tubs for some time, lay thicknesses of newspaper in the bottom and around the sides of the tubs, filling them a third full of water. The paper will hold moisture after the water has dried out of the tubs.

Salt codfish that has been scalded and drained three times then is ready to serve with chopped parsley and butter.

Frying pans and old dripping pans that have been used for years may be nicely cleaned by burning them in the furnace fire for half a day. They will come out sweet as new.

Fresh paint may be easily removed by an application of turpentine; but old, dry paint will need naphtha. Use it out of doors, as it is highly inflammable.

Peroxide, used on a piece of cotton wound around a toothpick, will remove stains under the nails.

Always keep a small bottle of peroxide on hand, as it is useful to use on a cut finger or any inflamed skin.

Pure glycerine diluted with a little lemon juice is a good softener and whitener of the hands.

A roll or box of adhesive paste is invaluable. There are countless ways of using it. A piece put on a sore corn or bunion will protect it and keep the corn from hardening. It can even be used in an emergency to mend a rent in a gown. Place the plaster on the under side and press it with a hot iron, bringing the frayed edges together.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN Food Specialist

EACH MUST STUDY OUT HIS OWN DIET NEEDS

"Be temperate. Hold to a regular and simple diet—a few nourishing, wholesome dishes. You must discover for yourself the quantity and quality of food proper in your own individual case." This is the conclusion of Dr. W. A. Evans, formerly health commissioner of Chicago, so far as diet is concerned, stated in a recent newspaper article on "How to Live to a Happy Old Age," and the same would apply in a scientific system of attaining efficiency and health during the prime of life. It will be observed that this agrees with the suggestions contained in these hints, especially in regard to the simplicity and wholesomeness of diet. I have also emphasized the fact that no two persons are alike in their requirements, which makes it necessary for each to study his own case, and it is for that reason that we are endeavoring to make clear the fundamental principles of nutrition so that each can understand and apply them to his own case.

CHAT WITH THINKING WOMEN

by Barbara Boyd

Brightening Life With Palmistry

"I could spare the money," the girl waiting for the car was saying to her companion. "I would go to that palmist again. She tells you the most wonderful things."

"Do they come true?" asked the other eagerly. "Some of them. I just wish I could go." Her voice was wistful.

She was a drab-colored girl, evidently an underpaid worker of some sort, and undoubtedly her life was as drab-colored as she. And the palmist, who into it bright threads—the gold of money, the rose of love, the azure of pleasure; and she came away from the fortune-teller's thrilled with all the good things coming to her. She rose each morning with expectation. She faced the future with hope. And as the effect of the dope gradually wore off, and her days became gray and monotonous again, she hungrily craved another dose. "Perhaps," she would think, "everything will come true this time."

It is the gray, colorless life so many live that leads them to the palmist. They crave joy and brightness and love, and she promises that these good things are now on the way to them. And her promise is an elixir in their veins. Because of it, their days for a brief while are bright. They await the coming of the fairy with the bag of gold and the arrival of Prince Charming.

But would it not be better, instead of feeding themselves with such unsubstantial food, to give themselves dreams that can be realized? Instead of believing that out of the Nowhere wealth is coming to them, why not see that out of the Somewhere money can come to them, if they will work for it. Why not get down in earnest to the task of making themselves better able to earn money, or of doing their present work better so that they can get a raise, or of seeking a better opening for their abilities. These would lead just as much to life, and bring more material results.

Instead of idly waiting for Prince Charming to come, why not set about the task of making one's self more attractive, more lovable. We will attract love to us, if we have the qualities that draw it. Like attracts like. The poets, who in a way are seers, say, "your own will come to you."

Surely this task will lead as much interest to life as dwelling in the fool's paradise created by the palmist, and bring far more tangible results. Instead of going to the palmist to brighten life be one's own palmist. See with the mind's eye what you want, and then work with heart and hand to achieve it.

TALKS WITH MOTHERS

By GERTRUDE STEVENS AYLES.

(By Gertrude Stevens Ayles.)

Every woman who holds in her arms, for the first time, a little helpless child, dependent on her for food and comfort and training—yes, for life itself—has felt her heart sink within her as she looks at it.

There has been mothers, who were too ignorant or selfish to face their great responsibilities and opportunities, but most take up the burden courageously and with some degree of success.

We have, however, yet to meet the one who did not long for some one of experience to whom she might go for advice and counsel. We have to doctors to help us in times of illness, but just as important questions arise in times of health—questions relating to food, clothing, sleep, habit, etc. Most educators are coming to believe with Madame Montessori that the first five years of life are more important than any period of the same length in after years. During this period habits are formed that make for health and happiness or wretchedness and despair.

Instinct Versus Intelligence.

"Mother Instinct" has long held sway, but not until the bearing and rearing of children received scientific attention did the enormous death rate decrease. Even now many a little life is ended because the mother was ignorant of this subject, probably the most important one to the human race. Sadder even than these unnecessary deaths are the dwarfed and stunted lives resulting from habits of body and mind formed in early childhood.

Education for Motherhood.

At some near future time the education and training of our girls for motherhood will become a part of our educational system and must result in healthier, happier babyhood.

Help in Time of Doubt.

The wealthy mother can employ trained nurses and specialists, the slum mother can get help from the stations opened in all our large cities for that purpose, but the mother of the middle class has neither of these opportunities. She can retain the nurse often untrained, for only two to four weeks, and cannot take her baby to the settlement house or similar place for counsel. She must feel her way in a maze where one mistake may mean death or misery for the one who is dearer to her than life itself.

Causes and Effects.

The effects in after life are often so far removed from the causes that we do not connect success or failure with mother—her care and training. Had they the eye of the seer many men and women would bless the mothers that bore and trained them, or rebel, not at fate or destiny, but at that condition of affairs that allows women, untrained at all, to do the work of bearing children and start their lives all wrong.

These talks will not undertake the work of the physician, but aim to aid the mother in suggestions, that if followed, would often make the services of a doctor unnecessary. Questions relating to the welfare of children under school age will be discussed and mothers are requested to make suggestions, criticisms and inquiries bearing on health, habits and happiness of children.

Home Baking Reduces Cost of Living

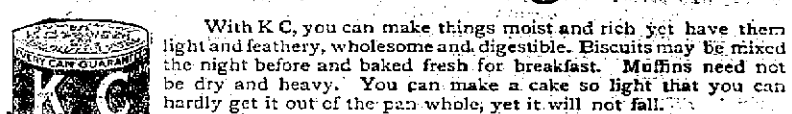

THE U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Experiment Station Bulletin No. 142 says that ten cents worth of wheat supplies almost three times as much protein and ten times as much energy as round steak, and with some other cuts the difference is even greater.

If then, one really desires to reduce her weekly meat and grocery bills, she need only make more use of her oven.

Who ever heard man, woman or child complain that good home-made biscuits, muffins, cake and cookies appeared on the table too often? Instead the tendency is "to make a meal of them" and the variety is so great that something you bake yourself could well be the chief feature of every meal.

Home Baking is Simplified by the Use of K C Baking Powder

With K C, you can make things moist and rich yet have them light and leathery, wholesome and digestible. Biscuits may be mixed the night before and baked fresh for breakfast. Muffins need not be dry and heavy. You can make a cake so light that you can hardly get it out of the pan whole, yet it will not fall.

K C is not like the old fashioned baking powders. It is double acting and continues to give off leavening gas until the dough is cooked through. K C is sold at a fair price—a large can for 25 cents. This would be no object if strength and purity were sacrificed, but every can is fully guaranteed under State and National Pure Food laws and to please. We take all the chances. Your money back if you do not get better results with K C than any baking powder you ever used.

Include a can in your next grocery order, try some of the new recipes that appear in this paper from time to time. Then you will have gone far toward solving this vexing "Cost of Living" problem.

REMEMBER—K C Baking Powder is sold everywhere.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Things Worth Knowing. I have discovered a new use for a glass egg-and-cream whip. Try it when using flour and water for thickening purpose. In a half minute or less the mixture will be found perfectly smooth.

Having spilled coal oil on my good carpet, I tried in vain every thing I could think of. Finally, through curiosity, I tried cornmeal, and much to my surprise and satisfaction, it took every bit out and left the carpet bright as ever. Then I tried it on other kinds of grease and it did equally well. I used a small vegetable brush to apply it with.

To bake cookies in gasoline oven, use aluminum pancake griddle and have no burned edges.

To prevent white linen or a white hat from turning yellow, wrap in blue paper or a cloth dipped in blue water and dried.

When the lamp with a round burner needs a new wick, try this way: Remove old wick, cut off charred portion and cut from bottom up to within half inch of top. Ravel old wick up as far as it is cut. Sew bottom of new wick to top of old and replace in lamp. By so doing the entire new wick may be used and another then sewed on as before.

The Table. Potato Puffs—Season two cups cold mashed potatoes with celery salt and chopped parsley. Add beaten yolk of one egg and enough milk so mixture can be rolled on well-floured board. It should be one-half inch thick. Cut in circles with cookie cutter. Upon the half of each circle place heaping tablespoon of well-seasoned chopped meat, moistened slightly with gray or stock. Moisten edges with cold water, fold over and press together. Fry in deep fat and serve hot. These are excellent.

Salmon Turbot—One can salmon. Dressing: One pint milk, heated to boiling point; add three tablespoons flour, two eggs beaten light, salt, pepper to taste; mix flour with a little milk, pouring hot milk into eggs and flour. When thickened, use layer of salmon, then dressing, then salmon, till everything is used. Sprinkle bread crumbs on top. Bake.

Old-Fashioned Concoction—Two cups wheat flour, one cup cornmeal, half cup sugar, one cup sweet milk, one egg, one tablespoon melted butter, two teaspoons baking powder, pinch of salt. Put in shallow pan, bake in hot oven 15 or 20 minutes. I am sure it tried once it will be tried again.

"RUN" the Household Right with GOLD DUST

Housework is hard work without Gold Dust; with it to save half your time and labor, it's a joy and satisfaction.

Gold Dust cleans everything about the house—from cellar to attic—and cleans it better and quicker than any other product, device or method that was ever invented. Millions of women have found this out; we're talking to those who haven't and are consequently doing their work in a longer, harder way.

The use of Gold Dust will save your time, spare your back and make your home as spick and span as a new pin.

If you have never used Gold Dust, either make a bee-line for your grocer's at once or call him on the wire and order a package. It will do all and more than we claim for it.

Gold Dust is sold in 5c and large packages. The greatest economy is in buying the large size.

Use Gold Dust for washing clothes and dishes, scrubbing floors, cleaning woodwork, oilcloth, silverware and tinware, polishing brasswork, cleaning bathroom pipes, refrigerators, etc., softening hard water and making the finest soft soap.

Let the Gold Dust Twins Do your work.

BAD BREAKING OUT ON CHILD'S SCALP

Little White Lumps, Pimples Would Break and Run Matter, Itching and Burning. Hair Came Out in Bunches. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured. Also Made Hair Grow.

813 E. Second St., Muncie, Ind. — "My little girl had a bad breaking out on the scalp. It was little white lumps. The pimples would break out as large as a common pinhead all over her head. They would break and run yellow matter. She suffered nearly a year with itching and burning. The matter that ran from her head was very thick. I did not comb her hair very often, her head was too sore to comb it, and when I did comb, it came out in bunches. Some nights her head itched so bad she could not sleep. "I tried several different soaps and ointments, also patent medicine, but nothing could I get to stop it. I began using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. After I sent for the free samples, summer after I sent for the free samples, I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. I washed her head with Cuticura Soap and rubbed the Cuticura Ointment in the scalp every two weeks. A week after I had washed her head three times you could not tell she ever had a breaking out on her head. Cuticura Soap and Ointment also made the hair grow beautifully. I cannot say enough for them for they cured my little girl." (Signed) Mrs. Emma Patterson, Dec. 22, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

For tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE

THE UTMOST CRASH

The sofa, though newly upholstered, was comfortable, and the hour was but eleven. Yet he drew away from her.

Sweet apprehension was in her heavenly violet eyes.

"Oscar," she breathed, "is aught the matter? Is anything up?"

Silently he pressed his hand to his heart and bowed his head. Ah, she had said something to wound him.

Was his heart breaking? She listened intently.

"Is your heart breaking?" she asked tenderly, fearful, perhaps, of an explosion. She had never been very near when one broke.

Again he again bowed his head and pressed his hand to his heart.

Outside a snowflake fell against the window.

"Gertrude," he said in a choking voice, "you have broken."

"No, no, Oscar!" she cried, "do not say."

"Three cigars," he concluded bitterly.

CHURCHES NEGLECT THE BOY IS CHARGE

Rev. S. H. Anderson in Address Monday Night Urges Parents to Understand Their Boys.

Declaring that the churches were too apt to forget about the boy and his needs and to make no provision for him whatever in church building or in the organization, Rev. S. H. Anderson, pastor of the Sommerfield M. E. church in Milwaukee, struck an important phase of the Sunday school problem in the last of the series of meetings held in the Presbyterian church Monday evening.

Rev. Anderson had for his topic, "That Boy of Yours." He described and characterized the boy in the adolescent stage and urged that parents and fathers, especially, study and understand their boys in order to deal with them in an effective way. The boy at this period of life is obsessed with three impelling desires, according to the speaker: something to do, something to know and something to love. On his physical side he is all activity and it is impossible for him to keep still. He should be directed along the right lines of exercise and should be given an opportunity to do things. His thirst for knowledge is also keen as is shown by the multitude of questions which he will ask, while he has a sentimental side which is more sensitive than a girl's.

Rev. Anderson declared that the best way in which to become acquainted with the boy and to understand him was first through memory, second through observation and intimate relations with him, and lastly through books. The first two ways were the most important in the speaker's mind and the man who could not recall his own feelings as a boy had little chance of getting along with boys or of aiding them in any productive manner. "Is it any wonder that when the churches make no provision in their edifies for the boys, and in fact do not think of them at all in making plans; is it any wonder that the boys come to think not very much of the church? It is natural that they should drift away from such an institution which does not give them the least bit of encouragement."

The meeting last night was closed by Dr. McElfresh who gave another interesting address on the subject of "The Appeal of the Sunday School to Modern Manhood." The meetings have been successful in drawing together the Sunday schools of the city to secure a greater co-operation and a more definiteness of purpose in the work.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES

COWARDICE.

(By Howard L. Rann.)

COWARDICE is a disease of the backbone which attacks people who leave home without carrying an emergency tank full of red-corporated courage. It is harder to cure than the kind-dried Vermont asthma, and scatters the nervous forces of the victim into a widely apart, that he is perfectly willing his wife should go ahead and see who is trying to break into the cellar.

When a cowardice once gets into the system, it is harder to eradicate than the footprints of a huckleberry pie from the bosom of a new tablecloth. A person can never tell when he is going to have an attack of cowardice.

Some men go through life with a red mustache and a fire-eating reputation, and then shatter the confidence of a bold, bristling wife by crawling under the bed when something falls off the kitchen range and makes a noise like opening the back door with a crowbar.

There are two kinds of cowardice—moral and physical. Moral cowardice is the kind which prevents a man from quitting without entering into a joint debate when he decides that he has had a logical sufficiency. The moral cowardice always wants to carry on a longwinded argument and taper off on live cigars a day. Whenever his heart rears up and beats a tattoo on the bedclothes he swears off with deep emotion, but the next morning he lays it to indignation and scours around the alley until he finds his pipe.

Physical cowardice is a form of shuffling policy which is accompanied by a new-born love of peace and a willingness to arbitrate. It is frequently found in large quantities in ferocious, booze-fighting citizens who have never beaten up anybody but their wives. It is an interesting sight to see one of the fourteen-carat paste heroes shrivel up in the midst of a gory recital by some short-legged hantam with sand oozing out of his vest pockets. The physical coward has the respect of everybody until he begins to bluster about his list of dead and wounded.

BY WALT MASON

I used to think, when I was digging gravel, and whacking wood, to earn a bone a day, and when I watched the rich ones past me travel, my path obscure was but a rocky way. I mopped my brow with my old red bandanna, and longed to bask in downy beds of ease, and live on birds and terrapin and marmos and oysters fried, and rich imported cheese. My wounded heart with anger used to quiver, when noontime came, and I sat down to eat, and filled myself with CHANGE ONIONS, bread and liver OF HEART, and moidly kraut and pickled porkers' feet.

But now, alas, that I am rich as Croesus, and live on quails, and scrambled peacocks' tongues, I fold my hands in front (where all my grease is) and sigh and yearn for days when I was young. Where nabobs meet I sit and wield the gavel, my face each day the Board of Trade expects; but O, the days when I was digging gravel, when I could eat in fine dialects! The dear dead days when meat time found me starving!
